Happy New Year everyone!

You've probably been reading that Pope Francis announced 2016 as the Year of Mercy. In response, the Archdiocese has earmarked seven "work weeks" for the Corporal Works of Mercy. The first one starts Sunday – Giving Drink to the Thirsty – and you can read in this weekend's bulletin about some of the things happening throughout our parish and how you can get involved.

One of the things the High School Youth Group is doing is collecting items to create Blessing Bags for people at Green Square Meals. Each bag contains a refillable, All Saints water bottle, as well as other basic need items. They've already received a lot of donations for the bags, but could use more hygiene items.

To see what they still need, go to the Social Justice page on the All Saints Website:

<http://allsaintscr.com/about-us/communities/social-justice-committee/> and click on the new VolunteerSpot button. Or email me, and I can sign you up manually.

Then choose the "Blessing Bags" activity, and sign up to make a contribution. Financial donations are welcome too, just put your donation in the collection basket this weekend, and label it "Blessing Bags." The Youth Group will be assembling the bags next Wednesday, January 20, 6:30-7:45. All High School Youth are encouraged to attend.

When you are on the the VolunteerSpot page, you can also check out the upcoming dates to help with Green Square Meals and the Monthly Food Drive. Check back every regularly for any new opportunities.

Thanks for all you do for our parish!

Sincerely,

Tina Lampe
